A different and versatile gin with lots of flavor

We recommend being served with lemon zest and rosemary to enhance its flavor

HENDRICKS

10

Um Gin revolucionário visto ser o responsável pela forma como bebemos gin nos dias de hoje. Lançado em 1999 e servido em copo largo com pepino em vez do tradicional limão. Produzido com pétalas de rosas, pepino e zimbro.

Recomendamos ser servido com pepino de forma a complementar o seu sabor /

The revolutionary is its name, as this, is the gin responsible for the way we drink our gin nowadays. First introduced to the shops in 1999 and served in a large glass with cucumber instead of the traditional lemon.

Made with roses, cucumber and juniper

We recommend being served with cucumber to enhance its flavor

MONKEY 47

Uma parte do nome deste famoso gin deve-se à colheita de 47 botânicos originários da floresta negra cuidadosamente selecionados e destilados de forma artesanal.

Sempre com produção em pequenos lotes engarrafados e rotulados à mão e obviamente uma edição limitada sempre que produzido. Recomendamos ser servido com mirtilos e toranja de forma a complementar o seu sabor /

The number 47 on this famous gin name is due to the 47 botanicals carefully picked in the black forest and handcraft distilled. Small batch productions being bottled and labeled manually and obviously a limited edition.

We recommend being served with blackberries and grapefruit to enhance its flavor.

A winter cocktail is presented in a clear, faceted glass. The drink is a golden-brown color and contains several ice cubes, two cinnamon sticks, and a slice of orange. A fresh orange peel is curled over the rim of the glass. The glass sits on a rustic wooden slice. To the left of the glass is a shiny gold Christmas ornament. To the right are a star anise and a dried orange slice with a cinnamon stick. The entire scene is set against a vibrant red knitted scarf. In the background, there are more festive items like a small basket with herbs and another gold ornament.
